

ECSM 2021: European Commission Vice-President Schinas on cybersecurity

European Commission Vice-President for Promoting our European Way of Life, Margaritis Schinas will tell us why cybersecurity is more important than ever and what to do to protect ourselves from cyber threats.

European Commission

Vice-President Schinas, who coordinates the Commission's work on developing a European Security Union, actively supports the European Cyber Security Month (ECSM) campaign as an important tool to elevate the understanding of cybersecurity risks and practices across the EU and globally.

More information about the European Cyber Security Month is available online.
