

Commission welcomes approval of 10 European Partnerships to accelerate the green and digital transition

The Council of the European Union gave today its green light to the Single Basic Act, a regulation aimed at facilitating the launch of 9 new European Partnerships, namely 'Joint Undertakings', between the European Union, Member States and/or the industry, to deliver innovative solutions in Europe for global health, technology and climate challenges.

iStock photo Getty Images plus

More information on the European Partnerships

Related topics

Advanced Digital Technologies

Electronics

Artificial Intelligence

Green digital

Smart Networks and Services Joint Undertaking

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/news/commission-welcomes-approval-10-european-partnerships-accelerate-green-and-digital-transition>