

Study on Blockchains - Legal, governance and interoperability aspects (SMART 2018/0038)

Blockchain and Distributed Ledger Technologies (DLT) as a set of trust technology is a key in free flow of data that underpins every data driven society. The study provides an extensive analysis on scenarios in building an EU legal framework for developing and deploying blockchain and DLT.

ec

visuals of the companies SPARK TECH4i and DATARELLA

The full Study report can be found here on the Publication Office of the EU.

Downloads

Executive Summary
Download

Quick reference Guide
Download

Study on Blockchain (2018/0038)
Download

Contact

Lukas REPA

Related topics

Blockchain

Boosting European digital Industry

Advanced Digital Technologies

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/library/study-blockchains-legal-governance-and-interoperability-aspects-smart-20180038>