

EU Code of Conduct against online hate speech: latest evaluation shows slowdown in progress

The European Commission released this week the results of its seventh evaluation of the Code of Conduct on countering illegal hate speech online.

This year's results unfortunately show a decrease in companies' notice-and-action results: the number of notifications reviewed by the companies within 24 hours dropped as compared to the last two monitoring exercises, from 90.4% in 2020, to 81% in 2021, and 64.4% in 2022.

Full press release

Related topics

Media Electronic communications and Privacy Digital Privacy Online platforms and e-commerce
Disinformation

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/news/eu-code-conduct-against-online-hate-speech-latest-evaluation-shows-slowdown-progress>