

Copyright: Commission launches dialogue between platforms and rights holders

The European Commission opened today a call for expression of interest to participate in the stakeholder dialogue on the application of Article 17 of the Directive on Copyright in the Digital Single Market on the use of protected content by online content-sharing service providers. The stakeholders will discuss best practices on how content-sharing platforms and service providers should cooperate with rights holders. This dialogue is requested under the new directive and will feed into the preparation of guidance on the application of Article 17.

European Commission

Stakeholder Dialogue

The Commission will hold the first stakeholder meeting on 15 October in Brussels. The objective of the meeting is to gather and map existing practices for the use of copyright-protected content by online content-sharing service providers in cooperation with rights holders, as well as to gather user experiences. The deadline for applying is 18 September.

More information and the call for expression of interest

Related topics

Audiovisual & Media Services

Audiovisual and media content distribution

Copyright
Online platforms
Shaping the Digital Single Market
Supporting media and digital culture

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/news/copyright-commission-launches-dialogue-between-platforms-and-rights-holders>