The European Commission organised a two-day workshop to foster cooperation between the EU and Latin America & the Caribbean, and to support its efforts to build a regional digital economy.

The workshop aim was to lay the ground for future, longer-term cooperation between the EU and the region. Work focussed on the alignment of digital regulations and policies, through exchange of experience and discussions on digital markets regulation, platforms & e-commerce, media and audio-visual policies, and cybersecurity. The workshop was followed by a second edition, held in Costa Rica on 20 and 21 March, 2019 (<https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/2nd-workshop-digital-cooperation-between-european-union-and-latin-america-caribbean>).
