

Study on media plurality and diversity online

- Opening: 19 February 2021

- Closing: 23 March 2021

The main objective of this study is to provide the Commission, member states and national regulators with elements to support the analysis of media plurality and diversity issues as well as the suitability of the current media-specific rules to safeguard media freedom and pluralism.

The study will focus essentially on two, potentially inter-related, aspects:

- Prominence and findability/discoverability of general interest content and services
- Measures concerning the concentration of economic resources to ensure media plurality online
