

Public consultation on fake news and online disinformation

- Opening: 13 November 2017

-

Closing: 23 February 2018

The consultation will collect views from all parties concerned by fake news across the EU as regard the scope of the problem and the effectiveness of voluntary measures already put in place by industry to prevent the spread of disinformation online. The objective is also to better understand the rationale and possible directions for action at EU and/or national level.

EC

The results of the public consultation will help assess the effectiveness of current actions by market players and other stakeholders, the need for scaling them up and introducing new actions to address different types of fake news.

Two questionnaires are available: one for the citizens and one for legal persons and journalists reflecting their professional experience of fake news and online disinformation.

The consultation will close on 23 February 2018.

You can reply in any EU language.

Go to the consultation.

Related topics

Audiovisual & Media Services
Disinformation
Media Literacy
Media freedom and pluralism
Multimedia actions
Social media and networks, innovation and policy
Supporting media and digital culture

Related content

Synopsis report of the public consultation on fake news and online disinformation

Consultation results | 26 April 2018

The public consultation took place between 13 November 2017 and 23 February 2018. The aim of the consultation was to help assess the effectiveness of current actions by market players and other stakeholders, the need for scaling them up and introducing new actions to address different types of fake news.

---

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/consultations/public-consultation-fake-news-and-online-disinform>

ation