

Digital Decade: Commission launches Action Plan to support recovery and transformation of the media and audiovisual sectors

The Commission has adopted an Action Plan to support the recovery and transformation of the media and audiovisual sector. These sectors, particularly hit by the coronavirus crisis, are essential for democracy, Europe's cultural diversity and digital autonomy.

iStock Getty Images Plus

The Action Plan focuses on three areas of activity and 10 concrete actions, to help the media sector recover from the crisis by facilitating and broadening access to finance, transform by stimulating investments to embrace the twin digital and green transitions while ensuring the sector's future resilience and empower European citizens and companies.

Full press release

Related topics

Audiovisual & Media Services

Audiovisual and media content distribution

Digital Cultural heritage

Disinformation

MEDIA programme
Media freedom and pluralism
Supporting media and digital culture

Related content

Europe's Media in the Digital Decade: An Action Plan to Support Recovery and Transformation

Policy and legislation | 03 December 2020

The ambition of this Communication is to accelerate the recovery, transformation and resilience of the media industry.

Source URL:

<https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/news/digital-decade-commission-launches-action-plan-support-recovery-and-transformation-media-and>