
Successfully Bringing Fibre to Rural Finland

In Finland's Suupohja County a municipality-owned fibre network to public places and village has been established between 2005 and 2013 (and continuing) in order to revitalise the countryside. The network has been built by Suupohjan Seutuverkko Oy (SSV), a non-profit limited company owned by seven municipalities in Western Finland.

Downloads

Finnish FTTx Network owned by the municipalities
Download

Successfully Bringing Fibre to Rural Finland
Download

Related topics

Broadband Europe

Source URL: <https://digital-strategy.ec.europa.eu/library/successfully-bringing-fibre-rural-finland>